The National Economic College 'Andrei Bârseanu' Braşov

Romania

Braşov

Braşov was, for centuries, one of the most important, powerful and flourishing cities in the area. It is located in central Romania, enjoying a privileged geographical position.

The National Economic College “Andrei Bârseanu” Braşov

The National Economic College "Andrei Barseanu" is designed as a source of top entrepreneurs, with a righteous personality and having a major role in shaping the community.

Andrei Bârseanu (1858-1922)

...was a Romanian folklorist, great teacher of National Economic College 'Andrei Barseanu' Brasov and author of the poem “Pe-al nostru steag e scris unire” (On our flag union is written) poetry which inspired the entire Romanian nation for achieving national ideal on December 1st, 1918. In 1912 he became vice president of the Romanian Academy.

The National Economic College 'Andrei Bârseanu' Braşov

Economic and geographical conditions that the city of Brasov offered in the past have led, since 1837, to the foundation of a form of education in economics.

After many other names and organization forms, from September 1st 1997, for the high professionalism of teachers and the students' very good results, "Economic Brasov School" obtained the name of "National Economic College Andrei Barseanu".
